CRITERIA TO PASS THE ENGLISH OR ANOTHER FOREIGN LANGUAGE COURSE

Criteria to Pass the English or Another Foreign Language Course:

a) The overall success grade of the preparatory program lasting 1 academic year is calculated by taking the average of 50% of the midterm, exams, assignments, term projects and oral exams carried out during the preparatory program and 50% of the General Exam at the end of the academic year.
b) In order for the students to be successful in preparatory education, they should get a minimum score of 70 out of 100 from the average of these exams.

Exemption and Level Determination

a) Foreign language proficiency of the students who register for the first time at the university is measured at the beginning of each academic year by the Exemption and Level Determination Exam, which is prepared and executed by the committees determined by the Executive Board of the School of Foreign Languages.
b) This examination consists of stepwise written and oral exams for the departments of the University which have compulsory foreign language preparation programs. Students who score at least 70 out of 100 from the written stage of this exam are eligible to take the oral exam.
c) The students, who get at least 70 out of 100 from the oral stage of the Exemption and Level Determination Exam, are considered successful and start their education program.
d) The students, who fail these exams, are enrolled in a one-year preparatory program.
e) The students, who have taken a 1 year preparatory program but failed at the end of the year, can take the Exemption and Placement Exam at the beginning of the next academic year and if they succeed, they can start their education in their departments. Students who fail this exam take second preparatory education.
f) The students, who have enrolled in the departments of the University's compulsory foreign language (English) Preparatory Program and who score at least 70 out of 100 from the YDS, may not enter the written stage of the Exemption and Level Determination Exam. These students must take the oral stage of the Exemption and Placement Exam.

3) The Optional English Preparatory Course:

In the optional English Preparatory Course, the students take a 1-year compulsory English Preparatory Program. The preparatory class is not included in the years shown in the teaching time column. Those who pass the English Proficiency Exam are directly placed in the 1st year. The provisions of the “Regulation on Foreign Language Teaching in Higher Education Institutions and the Principles to be followed in Foreign Language Teaching’ are applied to the students.

4) Arabic Preparatory Course

a) The education period of the compulsory Arabic Preparatory Class is at least 1 and at most 4 semesters.

b) The foreign language proficiency of the students enrolled in the Faculty for the first time, is determined by the Proficiency Exam conducted by the Department. In the Proficiency Exam, the success grade is 70 out of 100 points.

c) Those who are successful in the Proficiency Exam begin the undergraduate program they are admitted to. Those who are unsuccessful continue the Arabic Preparatory Program.
