1) Criteria to Pass the Turkish Preparatory Course:

Turkish proficiency of the students placed in programs is determined according to:

   a) The success in the Turkish Proficiency Exam that is held in the beginning of the academic year,
   b) Turkish Proficiency Certificate obtained from TÖMERs of İnönü University or other universities,
   c) Turkish Proficiency Certificate that is offered by Yunus Emre Institute.

2) Turkish proficiency levels organized according to the European Language Portfolio system are as follows:

   a) C1 and C2 Level: The Turkish level of the student is sufficient. He/She is registered to the program he/she has gained right to register.
   b) B2 Level: Turkish level of the student is not sufficient; however, language proficiency can be improved. The student is enrolled in the program in which he / she has the right to register, provided that he / she takes the Turkish course. The student should certify that he / she has raised the Turkish level to C1 level at the latest until the beginning of the third academic year. Those who cannot raise their Turkish level to C1 level at the latest until the beginning of the third academic year cannot continue their education and training until they increase their language level to C1 level.
   c) A1, A2 ve B1 Level: The Turkish level of the student is insufficient. He/She should take Turkish Preparatory Course for 1 year. The student is obliged to learn Turkish in 1 year when he/she is granted leave of absence. Students who do not certify that they raise their Turkish language to at least B2 level cannot continue their program. Students who document that they raise their Turkish language to at least B2 level can start their education in their programs. However, at the latest until the beginning of the third academic year, they should certify that they have raised their Turkish level to C1 level.
3) The students, who come from abroad or that are foreign nationals and who have graduated from a Turkish high school abroad or a high school in Turkey, do not need to take the proficiency exam.
