TEKİRDAĞ NAMIK KEMAL UNIVERSITY
CRITERIA TO PASS THE TURKISH PREPARATORY COURSE

In order to start their education, the candidates, who are accepted to programs in which language of instruction is Turkish, must attain required scores from Namik Kemal University Foreign Student Exam Turkish Test or one of the Turkish Teaching Centers (TÖMER) affiliated to Republic of Turkey Universities or Namik Kemal University TÖMER Placement Test.

Turkish level of the candidates, who have completed their secondary education in Turkish high schools under the Ministry of National Education, are accepted as sufficient.

From the Turkish Proficiency Test;

The candidates with a score of 81 and above at C level,
The candidates with a score between 61-80 at B level,
The candidates with a score less than 61 are considered at A level.

Among these candidates;

a) Those, who have sufficient Turkish (at C Level), start their education.
b) Those, who (at B Level) can get sufficient in a short period of time, are required to improve their Turkish language while continuing their education.
c) Those who are considered insufficient in Turkish (at A Level) attend the Turkish Preparatory Course opened by Namik Kemal University TÖMER. If they are successful (at C Level) in the exams to be carried out by Namik Kemal University TÖMER, they start their education.

NOTE: The candidates, who have been admitted to the departments, which are mainly in English, are supposed to meet the required Turkish and English proficiency criteria. Otherwise, they must improve and prove their proficiencies in both languages.