FIRAT UNIVERSITY
CRITERIA TO PASS THE TURKISH PREPARATORY COURSE

Turkish Language Proficiency Levels for Education at Firat University:

The students, who will study at Firat University, will not be charged any fees for the Placement Test. Candidates, who wish to certify the Turkish language level from outside, are charged a certain registration fee. The amount of this fee is determined by the TÖMER Board of Directors at the beginning of each term.

NOTE: The Placement Test is conducted by a commission formed by TÖMER.

C1/C2 Advanced Level: Turkish language level is sufficient. The student at this level can start his/her education immediately.

B1/B2 Intermediate Level: Turkish language level may develop in a short time. The students at this level start their education but must follow the Turkish course program for a certain period of time.

A1/A2 Basic Level: Turkish language level is insufficient. The students at this level must have at least one year of Turkish Preparatory Course before they start their studies.

The students at A1/A2 and B1/B2 level should attend Turkish courses organized by Firat University Language Education and Research Center until they become successful (C1/C2 Advanced Level).

Only one year of Turkish language education is not counted from the period of education of the program that the student will be registered in.

The students, who do not have sufficient proficiency until the end of two academic years at most, are dismissed from the university.

The candidates, who have an internationally recognized Turkish Proficiency Certificate or a TÖMER Turkish Proficiency Certificate, do not need to take the Turkish Placement Test.
