

İSTANBUL 29 MAYIS UNIVERSITY CRITERIA TO PASS TURKISH PREPARATORY COURSE

The foreign students, who are enrolled in an undergraduate program which the medium of instruction is partly or fully in Turkish, are required to study one year of Turkish preparatory class unless they obtain the stated score in the examinations that are accepted by the decision of the University Senate or pass the language proficiency test of the university. If they fail, they repeat the Turkish preparatory class by paying the full normal preparatory tuition regardless of their scholarship status.

If the student achieves the valid success grade or pass the Turkish Proficiency Exam which is available in any period of the following year, he/she can start his/her undergraduate program according to the scholarship status of the year he/she entered.

The student can participate in English or Arabic support programs by reducing Turkish lessons if he/she is able to succeed in the second language while studying Turkish Preparatory Class. The status of the students in this group is evaluated and decided by the Faculty Administrative Board.

TURKISH LANGUAGE EDUCATION FEE FOR FULL SCHOLARSHIP STUDENTS:

One year of Turkish Preparatory course is compulsory for those full scholarship students who are registered for the programs which the medium of instruction is Turkish and who cannot pass the proficiency. For these students, first year of preparatory course is free. In case of repetition, they pay the fee paid by the 50% scholarship students.

One year of Turkish Preparatory course is compulsory for those full scholarship students who are placed at the programs which medium of instruction is at least 30% English and who cannot pass proficiency. For these students first year of preparatory is free. In case of repetition, they pay the fee paid by the 50% scholarship students.

If the students cannot pass the English Proficiency Exam subsequently, they must attend one year of Compulsory English Preparatory Class for free. In case of repetition, they will pay the fee paid by the 50% scholarship students. Arrangements can be done for the students to learn these two languages in one academic year at the same time if they are at a certain level in one of the languages or both.

TURKISH LANGUAGE EDUCATION FEE FOR 50% SCHOLARSHIP STUDENTS:

50% scholarship students, who are registered for the programs which the medium of instruction is Turkish and cannot pass proficiency, must attend one-year compulsory Turkish Preparatory Course by paying the fee specified by the university. In case of repetition, they will pay the same fee.

50% scholarship students, who are placed at the programs which the medium of instruction is 30% English and cannot pass the Turkish Language Proficiency, they must attend one-year compulsory Turkish Preparatory Course by paying the fee stated in the table. In case of repetition, they will pay the same fee.

If the students cannot pass the English Proficiency Exam subsequently, they must attend one year of compulsory English Preparatory Class for free by paying the fee specified by the university. Arrangements can be done for the students to learn these two languages in one academic year at the same time if they are at a certain level in one of the languages or both.